2. The writer made a telephone call to Major George Eckels, Pentagon, extension 78260, and attempted to secure more information on the procurement of this device. It was determined that the procurement was being handled thru the Director of Procurement at Rome AFB instead of AMC. The control symbol for this device was stated to be 53-234A-33E. Also, the price for initial models has increased from $2,000.00 to $2,994.00.

3. The above information was transmitted to  He stated that this would solve the problem. With regard to the increased price,   stated that sufficient funds had been obligated for this program to cover the increase in cost.
